

Swiss Structured Products Association (SSPA) media release:

Swissquote Bank is a new Buy-Side member of the SSPA

The Swiss Structured Products Association (SSPA) welcomes Swissquote Bank as a new Buy-Side member. With the admission of Swissquote, there are now eight representatives on the SSPA's Buy-Side and the membership base has been expanded to a total of 42 members across the entire value chain, from issuers to trading platforms and Buy-Side to brokers and partners.

Zurich – 6 October 2021. With its innovative solutions and analytical tools, Swissquote Bank has established itself since 1999 as a leading Swiss provider of online financial services. Its core competencies include global exchange trading, trading and safekeeping of crypto-assets, forex trading and robo-advisory. In Switzerland, Swissquote is regarded as a key retail broker for warrants and structured products that can be traded via various stock exchanges as well as via the successful proprietary platform SwissDOTS.

Jürg Schwab, Head of Trading at Swissquote Bank, on the new membership of the SSPA: “On our trading platforms, we make over 130,000 structured products available to our clients. We are therefore delighted to be able to represent this market, which is particularly relevant in Switzerland, as an SSPA member. We hope to be able to continue benefiting the industry with our expertise while simultaneously learning from the exchange with structured product professionals.”

SSPA expands its membership base to 42

Now numbering 42 members, the SSPA represents the interests of the market's key participants, which together account for more than 95 percent by volume of structured products in Switzerland. SSPA Chairman Markus Pfister on the new Buy-Side member: “I am delighted to welcome Swissquote Bank as member of the SSPA. The exchange with the online trading expert will add new momentum to the Swiss structured products industry.”
